Change of Chief of SEBI

2137. SHRI INDER KUMAR GUJRAL: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Chief of SEBI has been cnanged recently;

(b) whether Government have noticed that as a result of this shift there has been rather odd reaction in the stock exchanges;

(c) if so, whether Government have taken any steps to see that the policies pursued by the last Chairman of the SEBI are sustained; and

(d) what policy changes are contem plated by the new Chairman of the SEBI?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (DR. ABRAR AHMED): (a) The former Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Board ot India (SEBI), Shri G. V. Ramakrijihna tendered his resignation on 17th Janiiary, 1994 and joined the Planning Commission as a Member.

(b) Government is unaware of any public statement by a Stock Exchause, either in favour of or against the change) in the Chairmanship of SEBI or indeed of any price changes in traded scrips which are attributable to the change of Chairman. The reaction of a few-stock brokers cannot be taken as repre senting the views of stock exchanges'

(c) and (d) The preamble to tha SEBI Act, 92 clearly lays down the ob jectives of SBBI. These objectives arc protecting the interests of investors in, securities and promoting the develop ment of, and regulation of the securities market. For realising the above objec tives the Act lays down powers and fun ctions of the Board consisting of a Chair man and Members. The policies of SEBI are governed by the objectives laid down in the Act. All major decisions are taken by the Board in its collective capacity.

Unreciverable advance of Public Sector Banks

2138. SHRI SUNDER SINGH BHAN-DARI: Will the Minister "of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the total amount of advances by Public Sector Banks declared bad by the Government till date;

(b) how much of this has been considered unrecoverable and who are the defaulters; and

(c) what restrictions were imposed on such defaulters?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (DR. ABRAR AHMED): (a) to (c) As per information available from Reserve Bank of India (RBI) the total amount of outstanding advances and overdues in respect of Public Sector Banks in all sector as at the end of September 1992 was Rs. 118835 Crores and Rs. 21022 Crores respectively, The amount of bad and doubtful debt considered by banks was Rs. 8063 Crores. Banks being credit institutions, certain amount of bad debts does arise despite all systems and procedures to ensure safety of funds lent In accordance with the statutes governing the public sector banks as also in terms of the practices and usages customary amongst bankers^ the banks do not divulge information relating to the affairs of their constituents except in circum-stances in which it is, in acoordance with the law or practice and usage castomary amongst bankers, necessary or appropriate for the banks to divulge such information. However, with a view to minimise that incidences or overdues and bad debts the public sector banks have been advised by RBI fo introduce a comprehensive and uni-form grading system to indicalte the health of individual advances for the purpose of their effective monitoring and follow up. They have also been advised to keep a watch on the recovery of top sticky acconnts. Normally banks, after-exhausting all avenues of recovery and to safeguard their interest and enforcement of security withine the penod of lav of limitation, file suits for recovery of outstanding amounts remaining unpaid by the borrowers. Banks also write off certain advaaces as bad debts only when they are fully satisfied that these advances are idtimately irrecoverable. Thus., the accounts under default are kept under constant watch and review to safe-guard the interest of the banks. Recently, thel recovery of debts due to banks and Fi-nimcial Institutbns Act 1993 has been enacted for expeditious adjudication and recovery of debts due to banks and for matter connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Rural credit of NABARD

2139. SHRI SUNDER SINGH BHANDARI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased state:

(a) what are the reasons for which only 5 per cevit of rural credit of NABARD goes to crop loans;

(b) which are the external influences affecting rural lending in the country;

(c) whether Government have considered sharing the responsibility of financing by banks; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (DR. ABRAR AHMED) (a) to (d) National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD) have reported that neariy 50 per cent of the refinance disbursed by them has gone for financing crop loans during the last two years as mdicated be'ow:—

(Rs. in crores)

Year	Total refinance sanctioned	Of which crop loans	Total disburse-ments	Of which crop loans
1991-92 . . .	6530.64	3513.57 (53.8)	5140.15	2576.50 (50.1)
1992-93 . . .	7713.99	3753.42 (43.6)	6087.65	3030.47 (49.8)

The Go-operatives which are the major purveyors of rural credit have been affected on account of increasing loan delinquency, non-viability of credit insti-tntloas more particularly at the grass-root level. NABARD is extending loans to State Govemments for contributi-iig to the share capita' of Co-operative Credit Ins-titutions to strengthen their borrowing power and increase the loans business. It bas also relaxed its eligibility norms/ Operational disciplines for sanction of seasonal .Agricultural Operations (SAO) loans in order to maintain the credit
